67 ATTEND AD CLUB DINNER AT BOITANO'S ON TUESDAY EVENING

Mike Cohen, of Vitaphone, Puts on Excellent Program

Sixty-seven Niles Advertising Club guests and membeds "made whoopee" at Boitano's restaurant Tuesday evening, the best program ever put on in Niles and talks by prominent business men of Oakland being features of the occasion.

The one fact impressing itself most upon local people present is that we need a hotel or public dining room large enough to accomodate such occasions. Though it taxed the ingenuity of the down-town section to come to the rescue the entire 67 were seated even though in several cases high stools gave an elevated position to the occupants. Neverless the assembly seemed to enjoy the plentiful supply of chicken and raviolis featuring the menu.

A committee composd of Fred Wagner, W. J. Helm, Mrs. J. C. Shinn and Jack Williomson did their best to transform the dinning room into an attractive setting for the event. Lights were shaded with crepe paper and the walls festooned with a wealth of blossoms from the Shinn gardens. One of the features of the occasion was the fact at each place was a different blossom, there being over 60 varieties in all. Oakland guests seemed delighted to have the flowers as souvenirs.

Dr. Chas. Law, as president, presided, and turned the program over to Mike Cohen, of the Vitaphone theater. Mr. Cohen has twice favored the Niles Ad Club with a splendid program, that given Tuesday evening being more than excellent.

"Rookie" Lewis, professional entertainer of San Francisco, gave one of the funniest acts ever heard in a first class vaudeville circuit, including a rapid fire line of good stories and catchy songs.

Miss Nita Randall rendered two piano solos, highly appreciated in spite of the fact that the instrument was a "mechanical" and difficult to manage. Some "wise cracker" slipped a nickle into the slot at the propitious moment and the music box began to perform all by itself much to the amazement of the visiting musician.

K. L. X. Artist R. H. Madden's vocal solos would have been a whole program in themselves and proved an unusual treat for those present. Mrs. W. J. Helm acted as accompanist.

Miss Caroline Gilman, radio artist, was again received enthusiastically and was kind enough to lead the community singing of the Niles Club song which is printed elsewhere. Caroline is singing over KFWM daily between 5 and 6 p. m.

Following the program, a number of talks were made by Oakland Ad Club members, after which all Nile people introduced

Niles Advertised In Sunday Chronicle

In case nobody noticed it, members of the Niles Advertising Club would like to call attention to the fact that practically the whole front page of the Automobile Section of the San Francisco Chronicle Sunday exploited the beauties of Niles. This occurred through the courtesy of The California Nursery Company which was also represented with displays of Niles' roses on the Garden Page.

SHOOTING AFFAIR IN NILES FRIDAY

Tony Costa Is Charged With Attempt to Murder

Mistaking the shadow of his wife on a bathroom window as that of his mother-in-law, Tony Costa sent a bullet through the window and is now in the Centerville jail charged with attempted murder.

Mrs. Costa and her husband quarreled recently and she went home to her mother, Mrs. Louis Perry. Costa called at the Perry home early Friday night to see his wife but was ordered away by Mrs. Perry. He threatened to return and kill her, Mrs. Perry said.

Following the shooting, Costa was arrested in his own home by Eddie Secada, local nightwatchman, and Constable M. J. Bernardo. He is reported to have told the officers that he had intended to kill himself and was sorry that that the bullet missed his wife.

Costa was arraigned before Judge J. A. Silva Tuesday. He returned to jail in default of $5,000 bail and will be given a preliminary hearing next Tuesday.

Kling-Swainson Wedding Is Surprise To Many

Friends of Miss Margaret Kling and Owen Swainson will be surprised to hear of their marriage. The couple eloped some time ago. They motored to Sacramento and from there they went by train to Reno where they were married by Reverand B. Adams. After the ceremony, they were entertained by County Clerk Bremer, and shown around the city by him. The trip back to Niles was most enjoyable. The country around Donner Lake and Tahoe was beautiful in its winter array. A surprise dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, of San Francisco, in honor of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Swainson, who have been operating the DeLuxe barber and beauty salon, have made many loyal and appreciative friends through their ability to give the best service in their respective professions. Both of them have had the advantage of experience in the largest cities. They will continue to conduct their places of business as before, with the aid of the very best and most modern equipment. The newly-weds will make their home in one of the Ellsworth apartments.

This motto is hung in the team's club house, stated Major Barbee, and is constantly brought before the members of the team as their hope of success. Just so is it with cities, Major Barbee stated.

MAYOR DAVIE GOES TO SEA.

BOYS of the Junketing Brigade, line-up; let us salute a real colonel who has won his spurs, and made other manipulators of the public pay-roll look like thirty cents. We present his Honor, the Mayor John L. Davie, of Oakland.

The big chief of the bay city is taking a trip around the world—at public expense. But that is not all, you small fry. The mayor does the thing up brown, when he swings into action. Nepotism. " 'Tis a nice word," says Davie. "Nothing to shy at." " 'Tis a thing that means efficiency," says the mayor. So he had the city council vote an appropriation to take care of his young hopeful on the world cruise.

And then the mayor gave no more orders. His moderation appalls us. Has he no daughter, no wife? At any rate, a live wire should have a blonde stenographer on such a trip. But no, Davie will limit the public bill to himself and his bright lad. They are going to advertise Oakland—in foreign lands. Already Davie has advertised the town in political lands. And the advertising has been, we opine, rather of odious value to the good town of Oakland.

But that "aint" no business of ours. If the taxpayers of our sister city elect to give the Davie family an outing on the continent and on the seven seas of this sphere of ours, well and good.

Bon voyage, Davie clan !

DR. BERTHA DYMENT, widow of the late Colin Dyment, deceased, owner of the Hayward Journal, has been drafted by the Stanford University, and, beginning in the Fall, will be medical advisor to the women of that institution at Palo Alto. The position carries the comfortable salary of $6,000 a year.

Upon the death of her husband last October, Mrs. Dyment assumed active control of the paper at Hayward, and though unfamiliar with the publishing business, has carried well the burden of her new duties.

A woman of great mental capacity and determination and possessing a charming personality, she has won the admiration and the friendship of the newspaper people of the east bay region in her short residence here. The fraternity naturally regrets that she must relinquish her active control of the Journal, but compliments her upon the tribute conferred by Stanford regents and wishes her even greater success than has crowned her illustrious record at Michigan and Oregon Universities and her medical activities in France during the Great War.

THE TOWNSHIP REGISTER wishes to compliment the Burlingame Advance upon the splendid edition issued to commemorate the completion of the San Mateo-Hayward bridge. The writer flatters himself with the belief that he knows typographical excellence when he see it. Glancing over the thirty-two pages of the Advance he knew that he had seen perfection in typography.

Editorially, the edition was commendable and pleasing. It effectively set forth the advantages that will accrue to Burlingame by bridge intercourse with the east bay region. It told of the advantages of Burlingame as a city to make a home, or a city in which to make a fortune.

Previously, Burlingame has seemed a great way from Niles. Now it is our close neighbor. Our car will take us there in thirty minutes. We extend to that city, in the name of Niles, an invitation to be neighborly. The great Niles Canyon playground is now open to you, and but a half hour from your home. Come and spend the week-ends with us. Already we of Niles are becoming familiar with the charm of Burlingame. We stop on our way to the city to refresh the inner man and replenish our gas supply. Our social intercourse will grow as time goes on, to the mutual advancement of both cities.

NILES CLUBS TO OBSERVE GIRLS' WEEK

Special Programs Will Be Arranged For April 21 and 28

More publicity for Niles through the observation of Girls Week, April 21-28, special programs to be put on by the Advertising Club and the Chamber of Commerce. Details of these affairs will be announced later.

Girls' Week, planned in conjunction with Better Homes Week also beginning April 21, will tie up the relation of the girl in the home with her opportunities and place in the community. An innovation in this country, the Eastbay Girls' Week is expected to prove a model from which other communities will copy is the first step toward establishing a national observance.

"To bring to the public mind the place of the girl in the community and to the girls, a better understanding of the community and the opportunities it offers them" is the stated purpose of this week.

Mrs. Helen Artieda, chairman, outlined the general plan at a tea attended by Oakland and Niles newspaper representatives at the Women's City Club recently. This program is put on under the sponsorship of the Eastbay Service Safety Council.

Vieux Brothers is one of Niles most progressive business concerns and residents are gratified to learn that this organization will remain as a creditable part of Niles business life.

Niles Theater Gets Advertising at Club

Mike Cohen, of the Oakland Vitaphone theater, very generously introduced Chas. Peterson, of the Niles heater, as his "only rival between Oakland and San Jose," in referring to the new talkies to be installed at the local theater.

Mr. Peterson replied that he would "let the pictures speak for themselves."

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN FOR COLLEGE UNIT

The task of educating residents of southern Alameda county to the need of a junior college will be undertaken this year by a committee headed by E. W. Burr, of Hayward, the campaign to open soon and to be continued for the next year or more.

Aid of the Parent-Teacher association units of Oakland and other bay communities has been promised both in the educational program and actual establishment of the college, Burr has been informed. Similar assistance from southern county groups has been promised.

Decision to postpone efforts for the college was reached at a special meeting of representatives from Eden and Washington townships at the Hayward high school during the week-end. It was at this time pointed out the time was not propitious for the project, due to unsatisfactory agricultural conditions, several other large projects under way in the district and fear that citizens might believe the proponents were "trying to cram something down their throats."

"The fact that we are postponing our work is not an admission of failure or that the college is not required," Burr explained. "The institution is highly necessary and is certain to be procured in good time. We believe a delay will aid rather than harm our cause. We have had many assurances of support from the entire county."

THREE CANDIDATES FOR SCHOOL TRUSTEE

F. V. Jones, of Niles, M. V. Perry, of Irvington, and John Whipple, of Decoto, are all candidates for trustee of Washington Union high school. The election is to be held Friday, March 29.

Hayward Editor Wins Stanford Position

Appointment on the faculty of Stanford University as medical advisor to the women students there has been given Dr. Bertha Stuart Dyment, owner of the Hayward Journal. She will assume her duties in the fall. Dr. Dyment has held similar positions at the Universities in Michigan and Oregon and at the Reed college in Portland. For several years she has been prominent as a specialist in the diseases of children. During the World War she was in charge of the children's bureau of the American Red Cross, stationed at Bolois, France. Her many friends in Hayward are sincere in congratulating Dr. Dyment on her good fortune, though they will be sorry to lose her as a member of the community.

Getting there ahead of the trouble

DURING the afternoon of March 17, 1928, an alarm bell rang in a telephone test station. This meant that a puncture had been made in the air-tight sheath of a busy inter-city cable. The men on duty knew that the injury was somewhere within 50 miles.

Highly developed locating devices were instantly applied and in sixty-five minutes the trouble spot was located. By 7:15 in the evening, before the break in the sheath had affected service on any of the 248 pairs of wires in the cable, the repairs had been made without one conversation being interrupted. This special alarm system is one of the many mechanical and electrical wonders developed by Bell System engineers to guard telephone conversations.

Automatic warning signals, electrical locating devices, constant testing of all switchboard apparatus and circuits—these are some of the ceaseless efforts that so effectively reduced interruptions to service on Bell lines in 1928. There is no standing still in the Bell System.

This time.... World's endurance record for women

"Louise Thaden stays up 22 hours, 3 minutes, 12 seconds---using only 162 gallons of Associated gasoline and four and one-half gallons of Cycol Aero oil!"

IT was in January that Louise McPhetridge Thaden, using Associated Aviation Gasoline and Cycol Aero Oil, set a women's world altitude record—soaring nearly 5 miles above Oakland Airport in her model A Hisso Travelair biplane.

Again this daring aviatrix has established a new record for women. She successfully maneuvered her ship in this thrilling attempt to remain in the air long after all previous women's world endurance records had been shattered. As in the January flight, Mrs. Thaden placed her reliance in Associated Aviation Gasoline and Cycol Aero Oil. The tired but happy girl stated after her record feat—

"Your products performed perfectly and I was sure of them every minute I was up. You can rightfully claim "More Miles to the Gallon" for your gasoline and "Endurance Beyond Belief" for Cycol motor oil."

Aviators and motorists everywhere endorse these "Sustained Quality" products.

Dear Mr. Bronte:

You were right. Associated Aviation Gasoline and Cycol Aero Oil Mo. 4 performed in my endurance flight yesterday even better if possible than they did in my altitude hop last January.

I certainly needed "More miles to the gallon" and "Endurance beyond belief" - as you claim for those products - and I'm sure I never could have stayed up so long without them.

Thanks a lot for your interest in my flight and tell the men at the field that I certainly appreciated their courtesy and attention to the details in getting ready for the flight,

Sincerely,

Children's Department Will Stress Preventative Work

Decision to launch into a new activity in welfare work was taken by the children's department of the Southern Alameda County Welfare board at its monthly meeting at Niles. It was decided that the department would turn more of its effort to do preventative work in the future, as well as the present work of remedying cases of orphan or maladjusted children.

The importance of this decision is seen in the perusal of statistics on welfare work throughout the country in the possesion of Mrs. Ruth McCord, executive secretary of the board. The need of relief work is steadily mounting over the country. It is shown, and the way to meet the situation is declared to be the taking of preventative action at the source of the evils causing poverty and delinquency, as a means of preventing the necessity for relief after the development of such cases.

The department decided to accept illigitimate children for care in its children's home and for adoption into foster homes, also to accept children with minor mental or health problems. It is explained that the children known to be in unsatisfactory home surroundings are the most likely to become criminal or dependent when they grow up. The idea is that the children should be given the home suroundings and other special treatment fitted to their special cases while they are children, instead of their cases being permitted to develop badly and become subjects for charity and correction after their habits have extended into adulthood.

In cases, however, in which children are removed from their parents to more congenial homes, arrangements will be made with the parents to pay something for their maintenance. Cases of children requiring protection, however, will be left to the juvenile court.

Mrs. McCord reports that the number of cases cared for by the welfare board has increased 70 per cent in the last three years, and that the number investigated during February was 356. During that three-year period , however, the disbursement of funds has increased but 36½ per cent, showing the results of more careful investigation and budgeting of expenses.

Further effort is needed to raise the $100 monthly needed for the support of the children's home, the children's department was told. Those organizations and individuals which have made pledges are urged to fulfill them without delay, as the home is laboring under a deficit of $80.

CHARITY BALL PLANS MADE BY WELFARE CLUB

Plans for the Charity Ball to be given at the Garden of Allah on April 13 by Welfare Club No.1, assisted by the Washington Post of the American Legion were discussed at a meeting held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Hatch.

Several door prizes are to be given and coffee and sandwiches will be sold. Music is to be furnished by the K. G. O. orchestra, and this fact coupled with the reputation the excellent floor at the Garden of Allah has earned is expected to bring capacity crowds.

Niles Ad Club to Feature Community Sings at Meeting

All members and prospective members of the Niles Advertising Club are requested to clip the following and either memorize or save for future reference. A group of songs will be arranged for community singing at future meetings. Any who feel poetically inclined are asked to send in short, snappy verses that will fit well-known tunes. This means A. A. Hatch, too.

The following was used at Tuesday's meeting of the Ad Club:

Oh, let us pull together
For the good of Niles,
A band of loyal workers
Boosting all the while.
Come, let's tell the public
Of our city fair—
In climate, soil, location
None with Niles compares!

(To the tune of "O, Let me call you Sweetheart."

This song was printed attractively on white cards as were the membership blanks, by The Township Register.

Since the Ad Club is fortunate in having Mrs. W. J. Helm as pianist, community singing will be a pleasant feature of all meetings.

Colleen Moore Star In Oakland Picture

These girls—their problems—ye gods!

Thirsty for kisses—hungry for love—and scared to death of themselves.

And now Colleen Moore shows them up for what they really are. Her new picture "Why Be Good." starts at the Fox Oakland theater this Friday, and the management of that house states the picture is the last word in riotous youth sizzling down the pathway of new-found freedom.

Based on the philosophy "if a girl says she walked home from the last auto ride, she'll never be asked on another," this picture brings to the screen a complex which Judge Ben Lindsey, George Bernard Shaw, and all the Benedictines are unable to solve.

On the stage Fanchon and Marco present a weird and fantastic affair, the "Grotesque" Idea, with Sally and Ted, Harry Vernon, dancing dragons and a fairy land of beauty and oddities. Hermie King and the Oaklanders and Henri LeBel at the organ make the good bill complete.

South Coast Gas Company purchased Elsinore's gas plant for $93,000.

A startling development in home lighting—
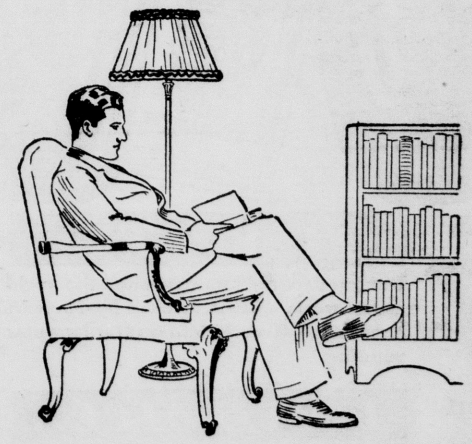
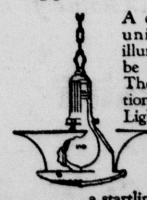
P. G. and E. customers have adopted it



NO one can ever forget, after they've tried them, the smooth light from these new Duplex lighting units. It's the diffusion and correct control of light that makes the difference. Raw light is broken up. Mellow'd. Spread throughout the whole room. An opal glass reflector under the lamp shade does this. The pleasant light gives new life to furniture. Clear color to draperies. In this light, friends love to linger for all can clearly tell "spades" from "clubs". There are no glaring bright spots in the room. Or murky dark spots to cause squinting and eye-strain.

Lighting engineers designed these lamps. Artists beautified them.

The lamps are made in floor, table and ceiling units. There are many styles and a selection of silk and parchment shades. Phone or call at our office and see these modern Duplex lamps. Let us send to your home a lamp on approval.



A central ceiling unit for general illumination should be in every room. The cut shows section of modern unit. Light is directed to ceiling and reflected evenly throughout whole room—a startling improvement.

The shade of the floor and table lamps rests on closed top of glass globe which surrounds electric lamp and diffuses raw light—a simple invention, yet it's revolutionizing light.

IMPORTANT ISSUE AT MARCH ELECTION

Trustee To Be Elected, Bond Issue To Be Decided

Mrs. George Coit is running for Grammar school trustee at the election on March. She has successfully filled the unexpired term of F. T. Dusterberry. As she has no opposition, she will keep her seat on the board.

Besides electing this trustee, the voters will have to elect two high school trustees and pass upon the proposed $15,000 bond issue for new buildings and improvements of the grammar school. With all of these things on the ballot, a large portion of the voters should turn out for this important election at the school auditorium on March 29.

World's Easiest Driving Control

NO OTHER CAR in all the world controls quite so easily—with such complete lack of effort—as the new Nash "400".

Nash engineers have developed a new steering mechanism to achieve this result. An ingenious arrangement of roller bearings and a roller-tooth traveling in a worm gear, reduces friction to a minimum hitherto thought impossible.

Women drivers find new help and gain new confidence in parking. Little effort is needed to bring the "400" up to, or away from, the curb.

Gear shifting is just as easy. The "400" clutch pedal depresses at a touch, scarcely resisting the weight of your foot. The conveniently placed shifting lever moves smoothly, easily, from one speed to another.

If you ever find that driving a car tires you, try driving a Nash "400". It will give you an entirely new conception of how effortless, how pleasurable, motoring can be!

Livermore Herald Comments Upon Junior College Move

The following statement regarding the Junior Colege appeared in this week's issue of the Livermore Herald:

The plan to form a junior college for southern Alameda county has been postponed for a year, according to the Township Register of Niles in its issue of last Friday.

No Meetings Here

Although official action has not been taken by the Livermore high school trustees or other local organizations the prevailing sentiment has been against Livermore participating in the formation of such a district at the present time. There have been no meetings here to acquaint the people with the need for or desirability of the junior college and hence the community has not been in a position to express a definite decision on the matter from this standpoint.

High School Comes First

However, Livermore is vitally interested at the present time in the campaign for a new high school and the school authorities and the community as a whole are absolutely opposed to permitting the proposed junior college proposition to interfere in any way with the improvement program here. A similar situation is reported to exist at Pleasanton, where additions are needed to the Amador Valley high school, and it is a certainty that these two communities will have no part in any immediate organization of a junior college district.

FAMILY NIGHT NILES CHURCH FRIDAY EVENING

Supper Served at 6:30 o'Clock; ...Good Program

Church Family Night will be celebrated at the Niles Congregational church Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock. An unusually good program will include a chorus of 25 boys from the Piedmont Community church and a talk by a visitor from that institution.

Mrs. Plum has charge of the supper, the menu including vegetable salad, assorted cold meats, mustard pickles, baked potatoes, hot rolls, apple pie, whipped cream, coffee and tea.

All families of the community are invited, each group to bring a proportionate amount of food. Donations of salad, meats and apple pie are requested.

Jack Holt Stars In New Zane Grey Novel

Saturday night theater goers will have a chance to see a real Western picture, one that will bring them up on their toes. Hoot Gibson with all his pep and action will afford great pleasure in his new picture "King of the Rodeo." The Collegians will also be present on the program.

Sunday and Monday Zane Grey's latest masterpiece will be shown on the screen. The name of this epic film is "Sunset Pass," and Jack Holt is the star. You have seen him before in western pictures so you know what he can do. He portrays the part with all the feeling and sincerity of a real red-blooded he-man.

The theater will be closed from Tuesday to Saturday, while the equipment for the Vitaphone pictures is being installed. Niles will be the only town between the East Bay and San Jose to have "talkies." People will have a chance to hear the "talkies" twice a week.

ARDEN SALT INCREASING ITS TONNAGE

Annual Output to Reach 300,000 Tons Per Year

The Arden Salt Company has placed a large force of men with tractors and scrapers at work on a vast tract of land near the Morton Salt Company's plant here and expects to complete a sufficient number of evaporation ponds this summer to increase its annual production of salt to 300,000 tons per year. The company is now producing approximately 100,000 tons per year, but is unable to meet the demand.

If the demand for the current season is to be met, one of the largest of the new ponds will have to be completed in time for water from the bay to be turned init it by July. When this tract of land is fully developed Newark will be by far the largest salt producing section in the world.

Everybody Welcome !
Same Chance to All

Here's your chance! Every business concern in Niles has an equal and fair chance to put itself before the public at the meetings of the Niles Advertising Club. When the program is arranged, each concern belonging to the organization will be given one meeting a year or as often as the turns come, to put over whatever publicity stunt they can think of to advertise their business.

Everybody is welcome, the only requirement being payment of 25 cents a month dues and a willingness to cooperate with other members for the benefit of Niles.

Any community is only so good as its individual business concerns. Rally round the flag, boys and girls of Niles, and let's see that our city gets national advertising at the convention in Oakland in June. Let's arrange for a visitation and point out the beautiful home sites of Niles, the picturesque play grounds at Niles Canyon, the sunshine and flowers and rich soil, the transportation facilities that make Niles the ideal place for country homes for those who work in the city.

Each firm should begin thinking of a stunt to put itself across at the ad club meetings. Those who deal with nationally-advertised products are especially fortunate, as headquarters will always assist.

But after all, he profits most who serves best. The man or woman who will get most out of the Ad Club of Niles will be the one who puts the most into the promotion of this organization.

America's Westminster Abbey

THE dream of the Father of His Country of a national church "for all people" in the National Capital is about to be realized. On Mount Saint Albans, 400 feet above the old city of Washington, on a 67-acre plot in the District of Columbia, this colossal national church—the Washington cathedral—is being slowly and magnificently fashioned into an everlasting reality, under a congressional charter to the Protestant Episcopal cathedral foundation of the District of Columbia, "For the promotion of religious education and charity."

Not since the Fourteenth century, it is said, has a cathedral like this been build. Probably not in this nor the next generation will another such Gothic structure be raised.

Into the foundation alone went 9,000,000 pounds of cement, 10,000 tons of sand and 18,000 tons of gravel. Its monstrous dimensions fairly stagger one—length 534 feet, width at transcepts 215 feet, inside height 95 feet, height of central tower 265 feet—the architectural idea being to produce the most distinctive Christian cathedral the world ever has seen. Its seating capacity will be 5,000 with standing room for 27,000 additional persons. Ground was broken for Bethlehem chapel in 1908. No date for opening the completed structure has been set. The estimated cost is $10,760,000.

The crypt is destined to become a hallowed shrine in which will be preserved the memorials of those who served both God and their country with unusual fidelity. There will be space for 1,000 bodies. Here now rest Woodrow Wilson, our war President; Admiral Dewey, the hero of Manila bay, Right Reverend Satterlee, the first bishop of Washington, and a few others.

Equipment for the office of the new Fire Hall will be purchased with proceeds from the vaudeville show to be given at the Niles theater April 5, according to an announcement by Chief H. B. Rathbun this week.

Thirty minutes of local talent will entertain the audience after which a five-act musical comedy will be presented by professional talent from the bay cities.

Frank Silva is chairman of the entertainment committee and has charge of the tickets which will be sold at three prices, middle rows, side seats, and children's tickets.

Hayward Court Names Local Chicken Thief

Formal complaint charging burglary was filed in Hayward justice court by Leo Trynke, who recently purchased the home property of Dr. W. B. McCord on Hazel avenue, against Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, 57, of Oakland, arrested by deputy sheriffs Tuesday in Oakland charged with numerous thefts of poultry throughout the east bay region including Niles.

Mr. Trynke and several other Haywardites who have been victimized by poultry raiders in the last three months went to the sheriff's office in Oakland Friday and identified several chickens found in Mrs. Smith's coops as belonging to them. Mr. Trynke identified a pet rooster by his markings and by the fact that the bird went to its accustomed place in his home yard when returned.

Mrs. Joe Cervantes of lower A street identified three of her chickens, as did Mr. and Mrs. Tony Vargas of upper D street, M. J. Rodgers of the Bank of Hayward and several others. Alexander Fonceca of Martinez also identified birds stolen from him.

The arrest of Mrs. Smith climaxed an investigation of six weeks on the part of Deputy Sheriff H. O. Nelson, who received, through Sheriff Burton F. Becker, information from Santa Clara county giving clues to the whereabouts of Mrs. Smith. The woman was arrested in an automobile loaded with a coop containing 20 or 30 stolen chickens, the officers reported. She is said to have operated throughout southern Alameda county and Oakland as well as in Santa Cruz county, where similar charges are pending against her at Morgan Hill.

She is scheduled to face the Morgan Hill charges first, then others originating at Hayward, Oakland and Martinez. Various other clues were found at restaurants where she is alleged to have sold the stolen poultry.

DO THE PUBLIC WANT IT?

IN the age of wonderful inventions, each new one that makes its bow to an expectant world, is predicted to be a revolutionizer and to be the overthrower of many of our habitual and everyday customs. The automobile was "opined" to drive the horse out of existance, except in menageries—yet, never in equine history have horses brought such prices as they bring today, or has so much attention been devoted to their care.

The same is true of the Radio and Newspaper Advertising—in fact it was even predicted that Radios would put Newspapers out altogether. But never have Newspapers been so complete—never have such sums been spent in

Newspaper Advertising

The automobile has become the carriage of the horse—we see him being hauled around every day—the radio has become the servant of the Newspaper. The news comes over the radio to the papers and through the papers is carried back to the people who look for it expectantly and read it as eagerly as in the days before one could reach up with a fly swatter and take it out of the air.

The greatest impression and the most natural one is made on the brain through the medium of the eye—a good advertisement, well set up, registers its impression on the brain even though seen hurriedly and will bring itself before the eyes as a vision hours after it is past. Most of all the advertising along with the news. We are accustomed to having it that way and we are creatures of habit—that is why we like to read our radio news in the paper, even tho' we have heard it over our radio.

Moreover, we prefer taking our entertainment straight. The following clipped from the San Francisco Chronicle shows the drift of the mind of the people—Radio advertising is doomed.

Free Entertainment Draws Most Criticism

Editor The Chronicle—Sir: Can an experienced radio fan give us a good reason for the habit of some announcers, viz., to speak while the music is going on? To say it mildly, that is a very annoying habit for us listeners. Can he not tell either before or after the musical number whatever he has to say? Does he not realize that by his unwarranted "butting in" he spoils the music?

We listeners-in do not care a bit to hear about superior qualities of this or that product, nor about the high interest offered by this or that bank. We bought our radios only for entertainment and we don't want it marred through oral advertising interference.

Visit Made to the 'Church of the Chimes,' California Columbarium

Last week a party of Niles people visited the California Columbarium on Piedmont avenue, Oakland, and since, have been reporting the interesting information and the impression of beauty and fitness they obtained on this visit.

"Flowers grow there; birds sing there; sweet music is played there; prayers are said there; and relatives and friends often visit there, bringing flowers in memory of the departed."

Although the practice of this method of disposing of the mortal remains of those no longer living is as old as history, the idea is one new to many. It is these latter who will gain most from a visit to this "house of the departed, built in the midst of a city."

One's first impression, especially if one is a novice, is the overwhelming sense of peace, rest, beauty—in no way sad, depressing, or morbid. The sunlight pouring into the open garden courts or filtering thru the stained glass ceilings, the sweet-singing canaries, the fountains plashing softly and reminding one of the "eternal waters of life", the odor of flowers everywhere, from the chapel the soft tones of the organ—and everywhere the sense of permanence, a resting place for departed loved ones that will endure as long as the bronze and stone which make up this palace of peace.

The California Crematorium and Columbarium is in the process of completion. The new cathedral being constructed of solid concrete is a triumph of imposing grandeur with its columns and arches, its panels of mosaic, its open courts and lovely corridors. It will be completed in about two years, according to Lawrence Moore, manager. Already a number of the rooms and chapels are rendering service. In the older section of the establishment is the beautiful vine-covered pergola, over 200 feet long, glass-roofed. Even the offices are artistic and restful.

The "Frances Willard Columbarium" is named in honor of one of the first nationally known women to write a public endorsement of cremation. "I have the purpose to help forward progressive movements, and hence hereby decree that the earthly mantle, when my real self passes onward to the world unseen, shall be swiftly enfolded in flames and rendered powerless harmfully to affect the health of the living," said Frances Willard.

And Ella Wheeler Wilcox wrote, "The body must eventually turn to dust, and why not turn it to dust by cremation rather than have it decompose in the ground?"

From a financial standpoint, cremation excels in economy. Even the poorest family can have the satisfaction of a beautiful, permanent resting place for their departed loved ones.

Complete details of process, prices and arrangements are available in attractively illustrated booklets which the California Columbarium will send free of charge to those wishing to make inquiries.

Arrangements of this kind are much like life insurance—when the need actually arises, it is too late. When death and grief have entered the family, there is no spirit to investigate the sanest, most economical, most beautiful way. But the wise have made these necessary investigations and preparations so that when the hour arrives, as it will to all, there will be a satisfaction that one's best has been done.

A daily program of music from the Chapel of the Chimes can be heard over KTAB from 1 to 1:30 p. m., and from 6:30 to 7 p. m. Visitors are always welcome.

Hamilton, San Francisco and though nearer home, none the less interesting, Oakland.

WHY
THE PREMIUM
THE slight premium you pay for Ethyl over ordinary gasoline represents the actual cost of the Ethyl fluid added to the gasoline and is not really an added cost when you realize that it is quickly returned to you in reduced operating costs and lessened depreciation—plus vastly improved motor performance!
Forty-two of the greatest oil companies in the world purchase ETHYL brand of anti-knock compound to add to their gasoline, because they know it is the only genuine anti-knock, high compression ingredient that is commercially practical.
Developed after seven years of intensive research, the expenditure of vast sums of money and the testing of more than 33,000 separate chemical compounds, Ethyl has made it possible to develop the modern high compression motor for everyday commercial use. The increased speed and power, added smoothness and flexibility, the reduced fuel consumption and lowered operating costs that go with high compression are possible only because of Ethyl.
The tremendous success of Ethyl gasoline, and the fact that it costs a few cents more to produce, has brought many imitators, marketing so-called high compression gasolines, totally inferior in quality and results. Insist on genuine Ethyl—sold only by authorized distributors from pumps that bear the Ethyl trade mark.

FOSHAY COMPANY REPRESENTATIVE GIVES ADVICE

Manager Glassbrook at the new office of the Citizens Water Company imparted some very useful information to several citizens in a conversation this week, referring to the trouble that some home-owners have with bursting water pipes.

"This is often due to too high pressure and can be corrected by the use of pressure regulators which can be installed for a few dollars upon the inlet from the main line to pipes on private property," said Glassbrook.

Service to the community is the aim of the local office of the W. B. Foshay Company and all problems connected with their business will be dealt with gladly.

"YOUR TOWN."

If you want to live in the kind of a town
Like the kind of a town that you like
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike:
You'll only find what you left behind
For there's nothing that's really new
It's a knock at you when you knock your town,
It isn't the town—it's you.

Real towns are not made by men afraid
Lest somebody else gets ahead,
When everyone works and nobody shirks
You can raise a town from the dead;
And if, while you're making your personal stake
Your neighbor can make one, too,
Your town will be what you want to see,
It isn't the town—it's you.
